

Save the Date!

Scottish Acquired Brain Injury Network (SABIN)

Online Lecture Series - Autumn 2022

These free events are particularly targeted at trainees, nursing staff consultants and AHPs who care for patients with ABI, but who may not all have undertaken specialist training in the subject

Programme

'Post confusional states after ABI'	Dr Blanca Poveda & Dr Callum Cruickshank	Thursday 18th August 2022 at 12 noon
'Emergency management of head injury'	Dr Neil Mukherjee	Thursday 15th September at 12 noon
'Population studies in the epidemiology of head injury in Scotland: trends and insights' (This is a face to face lecture as part of the STN conference)	Mr Andreas Demetriades	Wednesday 28 th September 2022 10.45am
'Robert Fergusson Team's approach to therapy for patients with challenging behaviour - group interventions'	Dr Killian Welch with members of the MDT	Tuesday 11 th October at 12.30pm
'A Community Brain Injury Team's approach to working with the cognitive and emotional sequelae following brain injury'	Dr Jane Moir and Dr Pamela Brown	Thursday 13th October at 12 noon
'A Review of multidisciplinary learning from our Functional Neurological Disorder experience to date and development of Inpatient pathway'	Dr Alyson Nelson, Shelley Connon, Kirstin Dawson, Imogen Dunlop	Thursday 27 th October 2022 at noon
'Coronavirus and Neurorehabilitation in an inpatient setting: reflections on the care of patients with severe aphasia and cognitive dysfunction during periods where visiting was suspended.'	Vicky Mayer	Thursday, 3rd November at 12.30pm

Royal College CPD accreditation is pending (One hour per lecture).

More information on the programme can be found here: <https://www.sabin.scot.nhs.uk/sample-page/news-and-events/events/>

@SABIN_NHS

#SABINLectureSeries2022

